Forty-six petitions are pending at the Post-office Department at Washington for the establishment of rural free delivery routes in Kentucky. Within the past fiscal year only twenty-four new routes have been established in the State, but the small number is due to the fact that Kentucky has approximately 700 of these routes now in operation.

Mr. J. E. Chittenden of Louisville, Commissioner of Kentucky Fire Underwriters, is here to re-rate Maysville insurance risks for the Underwriters. As the work is quite tedious and must be carefully attended to, Mr. Chittenden will be pleased to have the co-operation of every property owner so as to get, not only the physical, but the moral report of all risks.

More Equity News!

Over two-thirds of the 1906 crop, comprising the whole output of the Burley District, has been sold and the money is gradually being distributed. Mason county will come in for her pro rata, and after a while money is going to be plentiful 'round these parts. We have suffered with the Equity, and now it is only natural to suppose that we are going to be able to rejoice with them, for when trade opens up and all our Equity friends stick to us as we have stuck to them, we are anticipating a rush of business. For this reason we are advertising

The Biggest BUGGY SALE Ever Held in Maysville!

We cannot afford to carry over the stock we have on hand the coming winter, and they MUST BE SOLD. You have the money, we have the vehicles, and "fair exchange is no robbery." Buggies, Runabouts, Driving Wagons, Phaetons and Surreys with unheard of reductions in price. Can you afford to miss this sale?

'Squire Farrow, Using Dynamite, Startled the People

Yesterday afternoon between 3 and 4 o'clock the Fourth Ward hill-siders were brought to their doors with a jump, caused by a loud detonation and rumbling noise as though the earth had given away in parts nearby.

And so it had.

'Squire Farrow, in his excavations in East Fourth street, had touched off a stick of dynamite to loosen up the earth and rocks, and it did its work to the Queen's taste.

IMPORTANT HEARING

Railroad Rate Cases Heard by Judge Cochran Yesterday

Arguments in the railroad rate cases, in which the Louisville and Nashville Railroad and other railroads operating in Kentucky are complainants and the Kentucky Railroad Commission is defendant, were heard in Chambers yesterday before Federal Judge A. M. J. Cochran in this city.

The questions of law to be decided are said to be the most important in the history of the Railroad Commission in Kentucky.

The arguments were made on a motion of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, in which motion the complainant prays the Court to instruct Special Commissioner Samuel H. Stone to report that the order of the Railroad Commission, purporting to establish maximum rates in Kentucky, is null and void.

The rates complained of by the Railroad Companies became effective on July 20th, 1906, and since that testimony has been taken by Colonel Samuel H. Stone, Special Commissioner, and taking of this testimony was still in progress when the Supreme Courts of North Carolina and Minnesota decided cases in favor of the railroads operating in those States as against the State Railroad Commissions, and it is the contention of the complainants in this case that the ones in Kentucky are similar to those decided by the Supreme Courts of North Carolina and Minnesota.

Judge Cochran sustained the motion of the Railroad Companies and granted a permanent injunction against the Railroad Commission.

The case will be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States by the Commissioners.

Attorneys for Railroad Commission—C. C. McChord, Louisville, and Senator Thomas H. Payne, Greenup; representing Railroad Companies—Alexander P. Humphreys, H. L. Stone and E. Trabue, Louisville.

The City Council met in adjourned session last night and adopted the brick street and sidewalk ordinances. The report of the Special Committee in regard to the Market Street Esplanade was accepted and agreed to. The fountain will still be a fixture.

TAFT

On the First Ballot—Great Secretary Wins Presidential Nomination After a Remarkable Campaign

The Next President Named Late Yesterday Afternoon—Will Nominate Taft's Running Mate Today

The vote in the Convention first ballot was:

Taft	702
Hughes	67
Cannon	58
Fairbanks	40
Knox	68
LaFollette	25
Foraker	16

The Republican National Convention at Chicago yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock nominated William Howard Taft for President of the United States.

The Vice-Presidential candidate will be Taft's choice and will be named today.

Taft on the first ballot; Taft by 702 votes; Taft by the unanimous choice of the Convention.

Such is the record of the culminating day of the Republican National Convention of 1908, effected amid scenes of tumultuous enthusiasm and after a nerve-racking continuous session lasting nearly eight hours.

VICE-PRESIDENT NAMED TODAY.

With President named, and platform enunciated, there remains only the nomination of the Vice-President today to complete this momentous work. Last night the whole city of Chicago was given over to wild exultation in honor of the new candidate whose name goes echoing through the country.

BURTON PRESENTS TAFT.

The favorite sons of other States had been named save Knox and LaFollette, and then on the roll-call came Ohio. As the Buckeye State was reached, the tall gaunt form of Theodore E. Burton, with student-like face and severe black clerical garb, advanced to the platform to nominate Ohio's candidate.

He spoke fervently, with the ringing voice of an evangelist, which went through the great building. The close of his speech of nomination was the signal for loosing the long-pent-up feeling of the Taft legions.

"Taft! Taft! W. H. Taft!" came in a roar from the Ohioans. Megaphones were roaring everywhere.

When New York was reached the Taft column totaled 427. Ohio carried the Taft total to 511, or 20 more than enough to nominate.

NOMINATION MADE UNANIMOUS.

Good Summer Tonic

Most people at this time of the year need a good general system tonic. Even those who take the very best care of themselves find that they are obliged in the hot weather to tone up the system. You may not feel the need of it this week, but you will before long; but whether you do now or not remember that PECOR'S ORANGE PHOSPHOR is the best known SYSTEM TONIC. It acts through the blood on every part of the system, reviving and stimulating it to new life and injecting the whole body full of energy. JUST WHAT YOU NEED. Only 50 cents per bottle.

HISE.

Born, yesterday morning, to Mr. and Mrs. Moses Hise of Forest avenue, a handsome daughter.

ERNST DEFEATED

For Member of the National Republican Committee By Judge A. R. Burnam

CHICAGO, June 18th.—Judge A. R. Burnam of Richmond, Ky., was elected National Committeeman from Kentucky today; the vote was 14 to 12. Richard P. Ernst withdrew and nominated Burnam, a strong Taft man. The withdrawal of Ernst came after a failure Wednesday night to elect, three ballots resulting in a tie vote between Ernst and Frank F. Fisher of Paducah. It was evident that the deadlock would continue today if the two men remained candidates. After Burnam was elected it was made unanimous.

One man overleeping himself came near costing Judge Burnam the place. Ciscoe of West Liberty did not hear the telephone call this morning. His alternate, Walker Jamison of Beattyville, voted for Fisher, although Ciscoe says he would have voted for Burnam.

Fortunately for Judge Burnam, after losing this one vote, he gained Bennett of Richmond and Davidson of Stanford.

Ernst bobbed up in the delegation, smiling and apparently happy. He said it was a case of a combination of Postmasters and Frank Hitchcock that he had to beat and that while he himself did not land the place he checked and put an end to the "Third Termer" combination.

He says the name of W. H. Taft was used without the consent of the Secretary by the Fisher people. He considers the election of Burnam a victory for him.

Ernest was elected at 9 o'clock this morning—Allen K. Fawcett, Cashier of the Buckingham County Bank, has disappeared and the Bank is temporarily closed.

An examination shows a shortage of approximately $6,000.

Fawcett recently cashed a draft for a West Virginia Lumber Company on an Aberdeen (Ohio) Bank, owned and operated by the Fawcetts.

She says she knows nothing of her husband's present whereabouts.

THE ABERDEEN TRAGEDY.

The failure of the Aberdeen Bank and the suicide of President Daniel Allen Fawcett yesterday has shrouded the little city of Aberdeen in gloom.

The awful affair has completely prostrated Mrs. Fawcett and her two daughters.

The funeral of the dead Bunker will be held from his late residence in Aberdeen tomorrow and the interment will follow in Charter Oak Cemetery.

It is said that Mrs. Fawcett is a sister-in-law of Thomas Taggart, the Indiana politician.

Assignee W. A. Rist, who has charge of the looted Bank, will open the safe today and the most sensational disclosures are expected.

Deceased carried $6,000 life insurance.

A vote is to be taken in Boyd county on the question of removing the county seat from Cattletburg to Ashland.

President Fawcett, Who Suicided at Aberdeen Yesterday, Involved His Son

Latter Skips Out From Virginia

$6,000 Short

Coincidental with the looting of the Aberdeen Bank and the startling suicide of its President, D. A. Fawcett, yesterday morning comes the information from Virginia that Fawcett, the elder, was mixed up in another Bank failure and that his son, Allen, Cashier of the Buckingham County Bank of Virginia, has defaulted and skipped out with $6,000 of the Bank's funds. Following is the dispatch taken from yesterday's Enquirer—

RICHMOND, VA., June 17th.—Allen K. Fawcett, Cashier of the Buckingham County Bank, has disappeared and the Bank is temporarily closed.

An examination shows a shortage of approximately $6,000.

Fawcett recently cashed a draft for a West Virginia Lumber Company on an Aberdeen (Ohio) Bank, owned and operated by the Fawcetts.

She says she knows nothing of her husband's present whereabouts.

THE ABERDEEN TRAGEDY.

The failure of the Aberdeen Bank and the suicide of President Daniel Allen Fawcett yesterday has shrouded the little city of Aberdeen in gloom.

The awful affair has completely prostrated Mrs. Fawcett and her two daughters.

The funeral of the dead Bunker will be held from his late residence in Aberdeen tomorrow and the interment will follow in Charter Oak Cemetery.

It is said that Mrs. Fawcett is a sister-in-law of Thomas Taggart, the Indiana politician.

Assignee W. A. Rist, who has charge of the looted Bank, will open the safe today and the most sensational disclosures are expected.

Deceased carried $6,000 life insurance.

ERNST DEFEATED

For Member of the National Republican Committee By Judge A. R. Burnam

CHICAGO, June 18th.—Judge A. R. Burnam of Richmond, Ky., was elected National Committeeman from Kentucky today; the vote was 14 to 12. Richard P. Ernst withdrew and nominated Burnam, a strong Taft man. The withdrawal of Ernst came after a failure Wednesday night to elect, three ballots resulting in a tie vote between Ernst and Frank F. Fisher of Paducah. It was evident that the deadlock would continue today if the two men remained candidates. After Burnam was elected it was made unanimous.

One man overleeping himself came near costing Judge Burnam the place. Ciscoe of West Liberty did not hear the telephone call this morning. His alternate, Walker Jamison of Beattyville, voted for Fisher, although Ciscoe says he would have voted for Burnam.

Fortunately for Judge Burnam, after losing this one vote, he gained Bennett of Richmond and Davidson of Stanford.

Ernest bobbed up in the delegation, smiling and apparently happy. He said it was a case of a combination of Postmasters and Frank Hitchcock that he had to beat and that while he himself did not land the place he checked and put an end to the "Third Termer" combination.

He says the name of W. H. Taft was used without the consent of the Secretary by the Fisher people. He considers the election of Burnam a victory for him.

Ernest was elected at 9 o'clock this morning—Allen K. Fawcett, Cashier of the Buckingham County Bank, has disappeared and the Bank is temporarily closed.

An examination shows a shortage of approximately $6,000.

Raspberries!

Are now coming. The quality is fine, but the crop will be short. I want to supply all and would advise the placing of orders early, as I fill in rotation as the berries come.

Cultivated Blackberries

Will come in a few days. The EARLY HARVEST will be the first and best.

Other Fruits

Will come along a little later on, and as usual my house will be HEADQUARTERS FOR THE VERY BEST.

Vegetables

Are now fine and plentiful, and my supplies will be of the very best selections, always fresh. When you want the best of anything always come to me.
